AUTHORIZED LIST OF BILLBOARDS, THREE-SHEET POSTER BOARDS, AND WALL SIGNS, AS OF NOVEMBER 30, 1931

EXPLANATION OF ABBREVIATIONS

Under column entitled "Location."—The location given is that where the number, size, and type of billboards appearing opposite thereto are authorized. "R," where it appears in parentheses ( ) after an address, means "rear."

Under column entitled "Zone."—The zone of the location according to the zoning records of the District of Columbia: "1 C." being first commercial; "2 C." being second commercial; "Ind." being industrial; "Res." being residential. Also, under "Zone" appears the symbol, "P. B." meaning that the location of the billboard or wall sign confronts or abuts a public building or public park, including the areas known as "Shipstead."

Under the column entitled "Number, size, and type."—The first figure which appears under this column is the number of billboards or wall signs. Following the dash (—) are the dimensions in feet and the following abbreviations meaning, respectively:

"B."—board or billboard;

"B. R."—board or billboard on roof;

"W."—wall or wall sign.

N. B.—Billboards and wall signs in residential districts, or in the areas confronting or abutting public buildings or public parks and marked, under "Zone," respectively, as "Res." or "P. B." are authorized for periods not to exceed three years from November 30, 1931; and in agreement with the billboard companies, of the total number in these zones 40 per cent will be removed the first year, 30 per cent will be removed the second year, and 30 per cent will be removed the third year.
